

What do I do if my permit is denied?

You may appeal the decision to the Senior Resident Superior Court Judge.

How do I appeal?

North Carolina General Statute 14-404 provides that when an individual has been denied a pistol permit or had a pistol permit revoked by the Sheriff, the individual has the right to appeal the refusal/revocation.

The individual may appeal the decision by submitting a written or typed petition (statement) setting forth the reason for the appeal or complete the appeal form.

The petition/statement or appeal form along with a copy of the Sheriff's notice of refusal/revocation must be submitted with a filing fee of $200.00 (personal checks will not be accepted) to the Clerk of Superior Court, Civil Division, Mecklenburg County Courthouse located at 832 East Fourth Street, Charlotte, NC 28202.

Generally, appeals of refusal/revocation of pistol permits are considered by a Superior Court Judge with a hearing. The Superior Court Judge will notify the individual in writing with the court date of the hearing.

What do I do if my concealed handgun permit is denied?

You may appeal the decision to the Chief District Court Judge of Mecklenburg County.

How do I appeal?

North Carolina General Statute 14-415.15(c) provides that when an individual has been denied a concealed handgun permit or had a concealed handgun permit revoked or a nonrenewal of a concealed handgun permit by the Sheriff, the individual has the right to appeal the denial/revocation/nonrenewal.

The individual may appeal the decision by submitting a written or typed petition (statement) setting forth the reason for the appeal or complete the appeal form.
