Lucky Spot Barbershop, Cops & Barbers Host 14th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner and Turkey Giveaway

Charlotte, N.C. – Lucky Spot Barbershop and Cops & Barbers, in partnership with the Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Office (MCSO), are thrilled to announce the 14th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner and Turkey Giveaway. The event will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 26, at 6 p.m. at the Southview Recreation Center located off Vilma Street.

This cherished tradition is all about giving back to the community and ensuring families can enjoy a Thanksgiving meal and genuine fellowship.

This year, MCSO's Community Engagement Team will be participating once again with Aramark providing 50 turkeys. Over the years, thousands of turkeys have been donated to support local families. Though registration for turkeys has closed, guests are still invited to a family-style, sit-down dinner.

Special thanks go out to the many sponsors, including Walmart, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department, Aramark, Mecklenburg County Park & Recreation, and others, whose generosity makes this event possible.

"We are honored to continue to give to the community in this way," Shaun Corbett, owner of Lucky Spot Barbershop and co-founder of Cops & Barbers said. "For 14 years, we've shown up for those in need by making sure they have food to feed their families as they gather in the spirit of Thanksgiving. It's a very humbling experience."

"I love serving the members of my community, but I love serving dinner to them even more, alongside my long-time friend Shaun Corbett," Sheriff McFadden said.

The Thanksgiving Dinner and Turkey Giveaway has continually served as a beacon of hope and unity in Charlotte, showcasing the power of collaboration between local organizations and community leaders. Media is invited to attend and cover the event.
