Mecklenburg County Detention Officer Arrested

(CHARLOTTE, NC) – The Mecklenburg County Sheriff’s Office (MCSO) announced today that former Detention Officer Robert Hall has been terminated from employment. He had been working for MCSO since July 27th of last year.

Hall turned himself in at Detention Center-Central on Tuesday, May 16, 2023, on assault-on-a-female charges stemming from an alleged domestic violence incident that occurred the day before. Members of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department (CMPD) responded to the incident and obtained an arrest warrant for Hall.

“We expect our employees to adhere to the high standards we’ve set at MCSO, as we seek to be a positive example for our community,” said Sheriff McFadden. “As a public safety organization, MCSO requires all employees to demonstrate professional and ethical conduct both on and off-duty and we will continue to hold staff accountable for their actions.”
